POPPY DAY

Poignant reminder of those spacious days of glory and grieving, "Poppy Day" once more recurs to prompt the citizens of this country in the duties they have inherited from the past generation. To Canadian youth in this year of grace, the deep petals of the Poppy may not carry the same significance they bore to the youth of seventeen years ago. The symbolism of sacrifice with which the Poppy has become charged is something to which the present generation succeeds only through the wistful memories of the aging men who fought their country's battles, who suffered privations, endured long agonies and finally triumphed amid surroundings carpeted with Poppies.

To wear this humble emblem on Poppy day is to proclaim that amid all the jangling confusion through which this country is striving valiantly to regenerate the heart and mind are nevertheless attuned to a sense of homage due those men whose patriotism inspired 660,000 Canadians to offer themselves for service between 1914 and 1918; of that number more than 60,000 found graves in France and Belgium. And it is over those graves that the Poppy blows its perennial bloom.

The numbered dead were not strangers. They were young Canadians, filled even as the youth of today is filled with the joy of living. So, also, were the 170,000 men who in 1935 bear upon their bodies the marks and scars of war—the disabled ex-service men who suffered disablement on behalf of Canada.

To manifest that proud recognition of their place in this country, to mark that tribute which is their due, Poppy Day has been set aside in order that all may join in recalling the Great Sorrow.

The blood-red emblems distributed throughout Canada by the Canadian Legion's vast volunteer organization are the product of disabled veterans, men striving to maintain themselves in the Veterans' Shops, administered by the Dominion government. To purchase a Poppy is a small thing. For every citizen to do so is a big thing.

Let us all wear a Poppy on Poppy Day.

The October 15th issue of the Alberta Gazette contains announcement of the appointment of Joseph Benjamin Harmer, of Blairmore, as sheriff's bailiff for the judicial district of Macleod, during the absence of the regular bailiff, John A. McDonald.

HIGHLY RESPECTED OLD-TIMER PASSES

In the passing of John Alexander McDonald at an early hour on Monday morning, one of the best known citizens of The Pass was removed, after but a few weeks' illness.

Mr. McDonald was born in Framboise, Richmond county, Cape Breton, on September the 15th, 1873. He came to British Columbia in the late nineties, where he was employed at gold and silver mining for some years around the Stoen district, later moving to Fernie, where he worked in the Coal Creek coal mine till 1908, when he married Lily Adlam, of Lundbreck, and moved to Blairmore to accept employment with the West Canadian Collieries Ltd., as a miner.

For quite a number of years he acted as local district agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Co., and also the Sun Life Insurance Company, which agencies brought him into close touch with practically every family in the district.

In the realm of sport he will be keenly missed. Being formerly an athlete, he always maintained great interest in sports of all lines, and lent a helping hand wherever possible.

He leaves a large family to mourn his passing, a wife, four sons and five daughters. The sons are Leonard, of Safeways staff in Lethbridge; John, Herbert and Donald at home. The daughters, Marjory, of Pincher Creek; Lillian, Kathleen, Jean and Annie at home; also a brother and sister in Nova Scotia.

The remains will be laid to rest in the Union cemetery this afternoon (Thursday).

FORMER BELLEVUE CITIZEN PASSES AT CRESTON

In the death of Joseph B. Rudd at Wymndel recently there passed quite a well known early-day resident of Crows' Nest Pass points.

Deceased, who was in his 77th year, came to Lethbridge from Baden, Ontario, in 1890, and four years later homesteaded near Burnis, from which point he moved to Moyie in 1900, returning in 1906 to Bellevue, where he was a resident until 1915, when he moved to Wymndel and developed a splendid berry and tree fruit orchard. His wife predeceased him in 1930. Mrs. A. Bouter, of Bellevue, is a daughter; and another daughter, Mrs. R. Dalborn, resides at Wymndel, as does a son Andrew H. Rudd. Another son, John A. Rudd, is located in San Francisco; and yet another, A. H. Rudd, is at Moyie. Deceased was a native of Medina, Ohio.

F. W. GODSAL PASSES ON

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 22.—A pioneer of the west and one of the first cattle ranchers in Alberta, with large holdings in the Pincher Creek and Cowley districts years ago, Frederick William Godsall passed away here last week after a short illness. He had resided in Victoria for ten years.

Son of the late Philip William Godsall, of Iscoyd Park, Shropshire, England, Mr. Godsall was born in England and educated at Eton and Oxford. He came to Canada in 1882, and after a stay at Rideau Hall, Ottawa, as the guest of the Marquess of Lorne, then governor-general, he started westward. He acquired a 20,000-acre lease in the Pincher Creek district. A decade ago he disposed of his holding to the Doukhobor colony, which now operates forty farms on his property near Cowley.

Before coming to Canada he had been a sheep rancher in New Zealand and a tea planter in Ceylon.

Mrs. Godsall survives. Major William C. Godsall, of Haines Hall, Berkshire, England, is a brother.

The remains were forwarded from Victoria to Vancouver for cremation.

THANKS TO MR COOTE

The election is over in the Dominion now and all candidates are through the worry and stress of the pre-election days. Rev. E. G. Hansell, of Vulcan, the Social Credit candidate is the new member for this constituency and we wish him God speed in the carrying out of his duties in the Federal house.

On the other hand, we must not forget, as often we humans do who are swept by the tide of enthusiasm, to thank our former member in no uncertain terms for his loyalty to his constituency and the individuals in it. Mr. Coote now is retired from this office in the Dominion house, but like many other men, his policies and ideals which he presented will live many times over in the house as those which stood for something worthwhile. He worked unceasingly for measures during his term of office, and although, through no fault of his own, they were turned down at the last reading sometimes, then turned up in the platform of a new party, he was undaunted and evidently believed that some day the test of sincerity and honesty would come and his measures would see light. The time has not come—people are slow to adopt a social change in any country. But a few years from now probably the seeds of the work of this outstanding thinker, now in our midst, will bear fruit. There is one disappointment however, and that is, that Mr. Coote will not be there to press the needs which he has so long advocated. We hope that they will not. For in the deeper soul of men, sometimes there is a realization that the things that a person said might have been true and investigation will begin. In this, the past election days, we congratulate Mr. Coote on his untiring labors, his devotion and upright personality in the affairs which he conducted on our behalf in the house, and may he go forth steadily pursuing the task which he has followed—that of helping to serve humanity. Therefore, to both our leaders, Mr. Coote, now retired, and Mr. Hansell, we wish fair weather.—Nanton News.

MR. ABERHART

Mr. Aberhart, who with his policy of Social Credit recently swept Alberta, yesterday addressed one of the most largely attended gatherings ever seen at a Canadian Club luncheon in Toronto. While he did not, perhaps, make his policy perfectly plain to all his hearers, he must have made perfectly plain to nearly all present the reasons why he and his policy swept Alberta.

One might venture to say that Social Credit would not probably have been able to sweep Alberta without Mr. Aberhart; on the other hand Mr. Aberhart without Social Credit might have been able to carry the province—merely by his ridicule of the complete futilities of existing conditions and by showing the need for trying boldly to do something about it.

The existing economic system having fallen down on its job, it was evident that something new had to be done. The state of failure that had been reached was evidenced in New Zealand driving five thousand lambs into the sea; the Danish government destroying five thousand cars of cattle in a week; Brazil throwing tens of thousands of bags of coffee into the sea; the United States killing thousands of pigs and throwing them into the Mississippi to be carried into the ocean, with cotton and corn being plowed under in a world in which millions were starving, somebody, Mr. Aberhart said, had to do some new thinking on new lines in the hope of reaching some system less stupid than this.

Mr. Aberhart is a spacious, gracious, pleasing, smiling man, who takes his audience into his confidence, ex-

BENNETT FRIENDS

IN NICE BERTHS

The depression has had little or no meaning for friends of the prime minister who have been tucked away in comfortable, well-paid berths while a large section of the population, unable to pay for better accommodation, have been occupying the day-coach or the baggage car.

We are able to ascertain from the auditor-general's report, over 300 of Mr. Bennett's friends have been appointed or promoted to positions carrying with them salaries of from $5,000 to $40,000 a year. Consider the case of the high commissioner in London, the Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, who stomped Ontario in behalf of Mr. Bennett in 1930 and who received this nice, juicy plum as his reward. Considering the difficult period through which Canada has been passing, it is almost incredible that Mr. Ferguson should be in receipt of a salary and other allowances $15,000 in excess of that which was paid his predecessor in the Canada House. The auditor-general's report reveals that he received a salary of $12,000 a year, with a living allowance of another $28,000. And on top of that he has been paid automobile expenses of $1,277.95, and additional travelling expenses of $1,325.42. The total is in excess of $43,000.

Again, in 1931, when civil servants were being dismissed and salaries were being cut, Mr. Bennett's friends did not suffer very grievously. The man who had served as commissioner of Mounted Police had got along with a salary of $6,450, plus ration and a house allowance of $1,320. But when Sir James MacBrien was appointed by Mr. Bennett to succeed him, the salary rose to $12,000, the house allowance to $1,200, with a ration allowance of $876—a total of $14,376.

Regulations passed by the government abolished promotions and increases in the civil service as a depression measure. But Mr. Bennett's military friends did not suffer. General McNaughton, a chief of staff, was given a $2,000 increase from $5,000 to $10,000 per year. And then he was promoted to the research council at $15,000 per year, plus $15 per day when travelling, plus railway fares.

In 1930-31 the cost of the Canadian legation in London to the Canadian people was $103,537.84. In 1931-32 under the high commissioner of Mr. Ferguson, this cost increased by $36,342.47 to $139,880.31. Similarly, in 1930-31, the cost of the Canadian legation in Washington was $81,785.45. But under Mr. Herdridge, the premier's brother-in-law, the cost rose in the next fiscal year by $17,073.35 to $98,858.82. The total additional cost of these two legations in one year's time amounted to $59,415.82, an increase borne solely by the hard-pressed Canadian taxpayer.—Brookville Recorder Times.

Canada provides the bulk of the cheese, oats, motor tires, tubes, nails, silk hosiery and hay imported into Trinidad, British West Indies.

The annual Royal Winter Fair will be held in Toronto on November 20 to 28. This fair occupies 25 acres, all indoors, with accommodation for 15,000 head of livestock, poultry and birds in luxurious comfort. This year's fair is dedicated as "The King's Fair" to His Majesty in the silver jubilee of his accession.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Robert W. Babson, statistician and economist, predicts the United States will be out of the depression in six months and headed for prosperity.

Winnipeg's death rate has been cut almost in half in the past 25 years, health department figures show. In 1910, the rate was 13.5 per thousand population. Last year it was 7.6.

At two mass meetings in Kingston, Jamaica, "congratulations" were extended to Great Britain for her stand against Italy before the League of Nations.

Sixteen persons were killed in Moscow when an eight-story building collapsed during construction. The number of injured was not immediately known. A building on the same site collapsed in 1913.

Jackie Cooper of Jasper Park, Alta., riding "Stamp" victory, captured first prize in the cowboy's rodeo and broke riding contest at the 10th annual world's championship rodeo at Madison Square Garden, New York.

A finding that the Mexican government "is seeking the abolition of religion" is contained in a report of a deputation sent to that country last summer by the American committee on religious rights and minorities.

A deed of gift disclosed that former U.S. Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon has given more than $100,000,000 to be used for a building and site for a national art gallery in Washington.

J. Grove Smith, Dominion fire commissioner, told a service club fire department in various Canadian cities needed $15,000,000 worth of new equipment to fill replacements and increases postponed during the depression.

Luxurious Rooms For Passengers On Denmark's New Freighter

The motorship Canada, newest and finest ship of the Danish East Asiatic Line's fleet, arrived recently on her maiden voyage from Europe to Port of Vancouver.

Captain C. Knudsen, well-known in the port, formerly master of the company's Amerika, commands the new Canada.

Canada showed the port of the latest in modern ship architecture, with refinements that have been inspired by travel competition. She is an up-to-the-minute freighter, with refrigeration space, in addition to regular cargo space, for 75,000 boxes of fresh fruits.

But it is her luxurious passenger accommodation for 55 passengers which will attract the attention of landmen. Beauty and convenience are allies aboard Canada.

Appointments include a large dining room, which seats all passengers, luxurious social rooms which include a smoking saloon, ladies lounge, dance foyer, cocktail bar, children's dining room, and a built-in swimming pool—the first on any ship plying between the Pacific coast and Europe direct.

In the smoking saloon are paintings by Riberhold of Denmark's most-famed scenic attractions. In the dining room is a painting of Fredenborg Castle by Axel Johansen.

All rooms on the new ship are air-conditioned, all are outside and equipped with standard beds. Seventeen of the 25 double staterooms have private baths. There are five single rooms.

Using Different Principle

Energy Of Sea Will Propel New German Liner

Resembling a ferocious monster of the deep, an ocean liner is being designed in Germany to make use of the sea's unlimited energy as a propelling medium.

The ship will have an opening in its bow that will give it the appearance of a giant whale swimming over the water with its jaws ready to devour anything in its path. This opening will gather up the ocean waves and pass them through the ship. The water will be ejected by means of spouts along the sides of the liner. The water, forced out under pressure, is expected to drive the ship forward at great speed. As a result the expense of operating a liner is expected to be reduced, says "Modern Mechanic."

Within the mouth of the ship will be an observation platform and a row of windows, through which passengers may watch the waves surging into the hold. The unusual liner will be streamlined to increase its speed.

R. J. May, an engineer of Pirna, Germany, conceived the idea for the novel ship. He plans to install a large aeration pump at the rear of the liner's mouth. This will draw up the water and force it under great pressure through pipes to the spouts along the sides. The electric motor driving the fan will be powered by a Diesel engine.

May plans to build a model which will be tested on the Elbe river near Dresden, capital of Saxony. If tests prove successful, the engineer will seek to interest steamship companies in his project.

Unlike the ordinary liner which has propellers at the stern only, May's ship will have nine points of propulsion. These are the spouts located at the sides and stern.

Board Paid By Criminals

Michigan Will Collect From Convicts Able To Pay

Honest taxpayers of Michigan no longer are required to pay all the upkeep of convicted criminals. At its last session, the State Legislature enacted a law providing that, if they are financially able, convicts must pay to the State the cost of keeping them under lock and key.

The law is modeled on the statutes in effect in several States, including Michigan and New York, under which inmates of asylums for the insane are required when able, to pay for their maintenance.

Under Michigan's new law, the State may seek to reimburse itself for the cost of either old or new inmates. It is provided that proceedings "may be begun at any time after admittance" to penal institutions, and collections may be made over the entire period of confinement—Literary Digest.

Record In Freak Writing

Man Pens 1,741 Words On Twenty-Five-Cent Piece

A new record in freak writing has been set by a 70-year-old saddler, William Alberty of Horseshoe, England. Within a circle covered by a Canadian 25-cent piece he has written with pen and ink a rhyme history of Horseshoe consisting of 7,770 letters in 1,741 words.

He has put eight pages of poetry outlining the town's history in Saxon and Norman times into that circle. By putting Horseshoe's history under the microscope he has proved himself a genius in penmanship. This example of concentrated history, viewed by the naked eye, looks something like a greasy thumb-print, but with a powerful lens one can read it.

Mr. MacNutt named his composition "Take Me To A Green Isle." Mrs. Lillian J. Edward, Winnipeg, chairman of the musical committee of the chapter, informed Mr. MacNutt the song would be used in fall concert work in Winnipeg.

BEELZAZZAR'S FEAST

Golden text: Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler: and whosoever erreth thereby is not wise. Proverbs 20:1.

Lesson: Daniel 5:1-31.

Devotional reading: Psalm 1.

Explanations and Comments

The Fate of Nebuchadnezzar, verses 17-21. Belshazzar the king had promised Daniel a purple robe, a chain of gold, and the position of third ruler in the kingdom, if he would interpret the handwriting that appeared on the wall. "Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another," returned Daniel, and then assured the king that he would interpret the writing. But first he reminded Belshazzar of Nebuchadnezzar's fate.

Nebuchadnezzar became like the beasts and dwelt among them; he ate grass like oxen, and lived out under the open sky; this was his life until he recognized the supreme sovereignty of the Most High God. "His illness is well known to science as that form of hypochondriasis (madness) in which a man takes himself for a dog or a dog, or some other animal. Probably the fifth century monks, who were known as the 'Booker' from feeding on grass, may have been, in many cases, half maniacs who in time took themselves for oxen." (P. W. H. French).

Belshazzar's Warning, verses 22-24. "Though thou knowest how great Nebuchadnezzar was humbled, thou hast not humbled thy heart," Daniel then solemnly said.

Daniel charged the king with having drunk wine and his court with the sacred vessels purloined from the temple of Jerusalem. And he charged also with having placed senseless images called gods, and having neglected the true God who holds in his own power their breath of life and all their destiny. Moffatt's translation. "Then," Daniel concluded, "the part of the hand was sent by the fingers of a man's hand, verse 5—and this writing was inscribed."

The Writing and Its Interpretation, verses 25-28. And this is the writing that was inscribed: Mene, mene, tekel, ugarin. That is, Numbered, numbered, weighed and divisions, as the words are translated literally in the margin of the Bible. The words are Aramaic, and in the Hebrew Bible the whole story is told in Aramaic. Nebuchadnezzar's feast which took place in the palace; and it is evident that when the king saw the margin of the Bible, he was under the influence of wine.

The interpretation follows in Daniel's words, verses 29-30. That night Belshazzar was slain, and Darius the Mede received the kingdom.

Runs For Fifty Minutes

German Inventors Have Patented New Gramophone Record

The gramophone record that will run on for nearly an hour on end—to be precise, just fifty minutes—without stopping, has been patented by two German inventors, Herr Barse and Professor Vorwerk, after long experiments by many other technicians working in the same field. Experts, satisfied at last with the results, have nevertheless come to the conclusion that the rendering of music and song is not as perfect as when recorded by ordinary methods. The non-stop record will therefore be principally used in schools and for political propaganda purposes. Speeches will suffer less from interruption at a crucial point than before, and it is thought that in the schools of the future long passages from the classics spoken by men and women whose elocution is good will bring home the beauty of language to literature classes.

Gave Inventor Idea

Fear Shortage Of Ships For Vimy Pilgrimage

Railways Grant One Cent Per Mile Rate—Application Pending In At Rate Of One Hundred Per Week

Canadian Great War Veterans and their next-of-kin are taking no chances on being left behind when the special Pilgrimage Liners leave Montreal for overseas in July next. Mr. Ben Allen, Dominion organizer for the Vimy and Battlefields Pilgrimage, who has just returned from England, France and Belgium, announced that reservations to date number 2,000 and expresses fear that thousands of Canadian war veterans and their next-of-kin may be disappointed in failure to obtain passages unless applications are filed immediately.

"We have just returned from meeting the stowaway people," stated Mr. Allen, "and they have warned us that boats may not be available unless reservations are in early. It will be too late if a last few months rush develops. Unless we can definitely state within the next few months what the number will be, there will be many returned men disappointed."

"Applications are coming in now at the rate of over one hundred per week," with the Canadian National Railways and the Canadian Pacific Railways Company to announce a rate of one-cent-per-mile to and from Montreal for every Pilgrim from his or her home address. We will be swamped with reservations that may fill our ships."

Employers everywhere are extending the greatest co-operation to their returned men and women employees. Canadian Line Materials Limited, Scarborough Junction, Toronto, have arranged for all of their ex-service employees to deposit with the company as much as they wish from their regular pay cheques—and the company guarantees to double the amount. Unless a sufficient credit on April first of next year. "The plan has gone over big," states W. Alderson, Assistant superintendent.

Interest in the Vimy Pilgrimage is being shown at every gathering of returned men. With the usual Battalion Re-union Dinners commencing in October—the great Memorial Day parades in November, and Christmas activities, it is anticipated that Canada's Peace Army will be a significant warning to Europe of the sentiment in the Dominion against participation in future wars.

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches or the pains of rheumatism, neuralgia or sciatica, ask your doctor what he thinks about it. It is in comparison with "Aspirin".

We say this because, before the discovery of "Aspirin", most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach, or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of "Aspirin" largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken "Aspirin" year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: "Aspirin" is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains... and safe for the average person to take regularly.

"Aspirin" Tablets are made in Canada. "Aspirin" is the registered trademark of the Bayer Company, Limited. Look for this name in the form of a cross on every tablet.

SYNOPSIS

Nancy Nelson is a sub-dub, a girl, responsible girl, of course, who goes beyond the choice of her costume for her coming-out party. Suddenly, in the market crash, her indulgent father loses all he had, and his family is faced with the necessity of a simpler method of living. At this juncture a letter is received from an eccentric relative in Colorado, who offers the girl a home on what seems to be impossible conditions.

After much consideration Cousin Columbine's offer is accepted, and Nancy and Jack arrive at Pine Ridge. Nancy set out one afternoon to climb to the top of the hill so as to obtain a view of the surrounding landscape and misses the path Aurora Tubbs had told her to follow. A truck comes along the road, driven by Matthew Adams, and she asks him which way to go. They go to the house, look around, and then go on to Cousin Columbine's. There Mark Adam tells Nancy that his brother Luke has broken his leg, and that Jack Nelson has been hired to help out while Luke's leg gets better. Jack away, Nancy finds that she is homesick, and having no books to read, the idea of a study library at Pine Ridge seems a good one, and Nancy writes home to get her parents to send her some. The school opens and all they could induce others to let them have.

Nancy's parents and friends gave their liberal support to her request for books, and a sizeable box arrived in due course. Father Adam painted a sign for the library, and the Adam boys worked on the shelves for the books and decorations to make the room look presentable.

Jack Nelson, Matthew Adams, and Nancy go to the prairie home of Matthew's uncle for the winter, after Nancy and Jack leave for home, they are caught in a blizzard. Blinded by the swirling snow they ride with a bus full of school children, which was stalled across the road with its wheels resting in a snow-drift. Jack and Nancy stay with the children and do all they can to help. The next morning Jack sets out for help in the blizzard. He succeeds in finding help, and the party of children and Nancy are rescued. As a result of the exposure Nancy's feet are badly frozen and Jack is seriously ill with pneumonia, but both of them recover.

CHAPTER XXI.

The days that followed etched new lines in Columbine Nelson's face, for only a few hours after her second telegram from Massachusetts Jack took an unexpected turn for the worse.

"Shall I send for his people?" she questioned, when after a time that seemed endless a grave-digger doctor emerged from the boy's room.

"I should wait," he answered. "If Jack were my own son, Miss Nelson, and I so far away, I should say the same. You see, if the end comes, it will be soon; and since his parents could not reach here in time to see him, isn't it kinder, and wiser too, not to harrow them with the knowledge of how dark the prospects look just now? If he lives through the night the boy will probably recover. He's putting up a magnificent fight; and every nurse and doctor in the place is fighting with him—in spirit, anyway. I don't say that his condition isn't desperate; but somehow I've the conviction that he'll make the grade."

Miss Columbine did not leave the hospital that night; nor did she close her eyes till early morning when a nurse appeared to say that Jack seemed to have turned the corner and his physician felt the worst was over. Not until then did the old lady cry a little, and the doctor ordered a powder that brought sleep. It was almost noon when she heard a rap upon her door, and Matthew Adams entered the room.

"Did I wake you, Miss Columbine?"

"No; I was only snoozing. How's everything now, Matt?"

"The young man sat down on the bed and grined at her. "Jack's sleeping—naturally. Nancy isn't suffering this morning; and it looks as if the kids were coming through without a single amputation. That Osgood boy's been telling me what happened. I tell you, Miss Columbine, I take off my hat to Jack and Nancy—and to some of those brave youngsters too."

"I guess the papers didn't exaggerate this time," she observed.

"You're right. But just the same, I miss my guess if it's not some shock to those young relatives of yours when they read the story! How do you suppose it feels, Miss Columbine, to have the country regard you as heroes?"

"Well, it won't hurt either of 'em," responded the old lady. "They've got the Nelson common sense. It's I who's likely to be put out by it. I've been thinking of the courage it must have taken for a boy to start out in the teeth of such a storm, especially when the driver had disappeared. And Nancy! A girl brought up as she's been—everything soft and easy so far—to do what she did—Well, all I can say is that my pioneer mother would have been proud of her!"

"Matt noted with pleasure that Miss Columbine spoke with her accustomed briskness.

"You must go home to-day, Matthew," she said later. "It's been a comfort knowing you were here; but your father needs you, and I'll not be babied any longer."

The young man smiled.

"I've had orders per telephone, to stay on duty a day longer. Mark's on his way in from Prairie Ranch right now. Mother's coming down in the truck to take him home and, incidentally, pick out a new car! That's one good thing came out of this blizzard, Miss Columbine, we're practically forced to buy a decent automobile. The old one's done for, and even Dad can't rake up any decent to put us off. The Adam clan is thrilled at the prospect. We're to have a family reunion at the Ford agency this afternoon."

Miss Columbine laughed and said: "Your mother deserves a modern car if anybody does. Is Mark all right again?"

"He'd come whether he was or not. They've had to take turns sitting on him to prevent his getting out of bed! All that kept Mark from joining that rescue party, Miss Columbine, was the fact that Aunt Emma hid his clothes and locked the closet where Uncle Tom keeps his. I must run now and get a bite before I meet the family."

After this things went more smoothly, and the messages to Edgemore contained only the best of news.

Thus there came a day some two weeks later when Nancy found herself in the big black walnut bed again, with General Grant looking down disapprovingly, she thought, on her Chinese coat; and Mark Adam looking quite the opposite, as he stood in the doorway.

"Pursuing your fan mail?" he questioned soberly.

Nancy laughed. Her bed was strewn with newspapers and letters, not to mention various telegrams from her admirers. She laid down a cable from Aunt Judy and the Spear twins as she said:

"Come on in the bed, and be seated. No, not on the bed, Mark! My feet don't seem to belong to me yet, and I've got the feeling that if anybody sits on 'em they'll break off! Where's Matt?" I want him to read some of these foolish letters. Can—can you beat that?"

"She tossed him a mischievous look, but before Mark had time to look at it, Aurora Tubbs puffed up the stairs.

"What'll you have for dinner, Nancy? There's a steak, and creamed potatoes, and some hot-house tomatoes that come by express this morning from a 'sincere admirer' in Fort Collins, whoever he is. Would you like apple pie, or a good baked custard? Miss Columbine says to order anything you want. My stars! Your bed's a perfect sight. I hope this praise you're gettin' won't turn your head."

Nancy smiled and replied: "I'll choose the pie, Aurora. And could we open a can of your wonderful string beans?"

"Sure we could. Why don't you ask right out to stay to dinner, Mark Adam? You might as well as sit there lookin' hungry."

Mark shook his head, endeavoring to appear grave.

"You wrong me, Aurora. I'm headed for Colorado Springs soon as my elder brother arrives from home in the new car. We're to swap vehicles; and I dare say Matt would appreciate that grudging invitation, though if you ask me, he's already enjoyed more than his share of our nation's heroine."

"I think he's gettin' awful sweet on her," observed the woman, so soberly that Nancy suppressed a smile.

"So'm I," said Mark, and grined at Nancy.

Aurora moved forward, her brow furrowed with worry.

"I hope to goodness it won't make no trouble in the family, Mark Adam. I'd break your mother's heart if anything was to come between you boys. What are you laughin' about now, Nancy Nelson? It's no laughin' matter for two brothers to get sweet on the same girl. There was the Elton brothers up to Cripple Creek. They both fell in love with Sarah Peters and—Yes, Miss Columbine (as a warning sounded from below), 'I know you told me not to talk Nancy to death. I'm comin' now.'"

"And she leaves us," Mark said tragically as Aurora fed, "in complete ignorance as to the fate of those unfortunate Eltons! I'll look in on Jack this afternoon, Nancy. Want me to take him some of this accumulation?"

"I do if you want't forget to bring them back. I'm saving every one of these absurdities to show my grandchildren. Jack's seen the papers, I suppose."

Mark nodded.

"He says he feels like Lindbergh! The last of those kids goes home to-day, Nancy. It's wonderful how well they all came through."

"Isn't it I was so awfully afraid for some of them. It makes me shudder just to remember how they suffered. Is that Matt honking so cheerily below the window? Hand me that compact on the bureau, Mark. I expect I look a sight."

The young man threw her a reproachful glance as he bowed. "I note the fact that you used no powder or lipstick on my account, Miss Aladdin. Say! Aunt Emma sent in a big donation for the library. I left the books with Mary Taylor, but she suggested you might like to look 'em over here."

"I would. I can hardly wait to get back to the library. Juanita says—"

"All ready, feller," called Matthew from below.

Mark went to the stairway and looked down.

"Why don't you join us, brother? Nancy's been beautifying herself just for your benefit. She looks like the Queen of Sheba or Greta Garbo, or some other beauty."

Matthew obeyed, saying as he paused on the threshold: "I was only thinking that two callers might upset the invalid. How you feeling, Nancy?"

"Great! And don't call me an invalid. There's nothing the matter except that my feet feel sort of—well, sort of brittle!"

"Mark Adam," called Miss Columbine, "you come right down. You've been there half an hour. It's Matt's turn now."

"Coming," called Mark; and then to Nancy: "I'll drop in later and let you know if your brother's hat still fits his head, my dear. So long."

As Mark departed, Matt drew a chair nearer the bed.

"You appear to be submerged in letters, telegrams, and the daily press," he told her, smiling. "How does it make you feel, Nancy?"

Her eyes lighted with something near amusement.

"I am sound ungrateful, but most of this business makes me want to go to bed. I'm really nice for every one to say such things about us; but I know, and you know too, Matt, that anybody else would have done exactly what Jack and I did. It just happened to be us—that's all."

"I'm not so sure," said Matthew gravely. "I think you're wonderful, Nancy."

A Lightning Shave

Italian Canines Flash Depressed Him Of Moustache And Beard

It is certain that Luciano Codecuppi had a beard and moustache, and just as certain that after a thunderstorm he was clean shaven. He says the lightning shaved him.

Here is his story: Codecuppi, who lives in the village of Fraore di San Pancrazio, Italy, was leaning out of the window watching the lightning flicker across the fields when a sudden flash seemed to hit the house, and threw him back into the room. When he put his hand to his face he found that his moustache and beard had disappeared.

Otherwise he was uninjured.

Bicycle With Wings

Short Flight Has Been Achieved By German Inventor

From Germany comes the news of the first flight ever achieved by man-power alone. Since time immemorial men have been trying to conquer the air in various contraptions propelled by human muscles and the spectators at Frankford-on-Main saw a sort of winged bicycle actually leave the ground in a flight of several hundred yards.

So what? Does this presage a time when we shall leap on our aerial bicycles and sail through space? The inventor says so, but we are inclined to doubt him. Terrestrial bicycles, if you recall, became somewhat less popular with the development of the gasoline engine. It would be great sport to go pedalling through the air, but when one can sit comfortably at the controls and let an engine do the work—well, somehow aerial bicycling seems less attractive. If it came to a choice between flying flippers and flying bicycles, we have a pretty good hunch which the public would choose. —Detroit Saturday Night.

Tribute To Women

Share Largely In Contributions To Our Modern Civilization

Women's contribution to civilization has been a large one. No less an authority than Mary R. Board, the noted historian, claims that women have advanced civilization. She points out that primitive woman was the cook and the guardian of the hearth, that women were the butchers, millers, harvesters, that they evolved the processes of spinning, weaving, dyeing, that according to one authority they even invented the muck pump and that they are credited equally with men with discovering the origin of fire.—Country Life in B.C.

All Have Same Idea

Seven Sons In One Family Serve On Police Force

A family of seven sons, and all in the police force, is the record set up by Mr. and Mrs. M. Duncan, of Post-ay, Scotland. Duncan senior, also served as a policeman for a number of years, but left the force, and took up farming. After leaving school in turn the seven sons tried to farm. Six of them are six feet and over in height, while the youngest, who is only 18, is five feet 11 inches.

Little Helps For This Week

A bruised reed shall He not break. Isaiah 42:3.

All my life I still have found And I'll forget it never; Every sorrow hath its bound, No cross endures forever. All things else but have their day, God's love only lasts for aye.

We have never had more than we can bear. The present hour we are always able to endure. As our day so is our strength. If the trials of many years were gathered into one they would overwhelm us, therefore in pity for our little strength. He sends first one and then another, and then removes both before He lays on a third heavier perhaps than either, but all is so wisely measured to our strength that the bruised reed is never broken. We do not look enough at our trials in this successive and continuous view. Each one is sent to us to teach us something, and altogether they have a lesson which is beyond the power of any to teach alone.

New Air Weapon

Huge Bombers Submitted To United States Army For Approval

A new Vulture observation bomber, described by experienced aviation men as "the most powerful air weapon ever devised," has completed secret factory tests and will be submitted to the United States army for approval.

Perhaps the most striking development of the 850-horsepower bomber, which can fly at 250 miles an hour fully loaded, is its canopy of shattered-proof glass, which permits unobscured vision and preserves low air resistance.

The bomber is equipped with one traversable and four fixed machine guns. Alternate armament can be one 1,100-pound bomb, or 24 bombs of 100 pounds each.

The big ship also can carry pressure tanks for poison gas to be discharged over trenches at 250 miles an hour.

Pilgrims Visit Battlefields

A quarter of a million pilgrims visit the Great War battlefields of France every year, and of these six per cent. are German, twice as many as British. No fewer than 14,700 Germans visited Verdun alone during 1934.

A COMMUNITY PROBLEM

The most important, and at the same time the most difficult job which any community has, is to take the boys and girls as they leave school, find a job for them, teach them how to do that job well and then guide them through their apprenticeship period and into the home-making period of their lives in a way that makes of them useful men and women and high-class citizens. This is essentially a community problem and the community that fails to solve this problem slips slowly backward.

The life of the average person may be divided into five periods:

First—The period of infancy, which lasts from birth until the age of five.

Second—The school period, from the age of five until the age of fifteen or sixteen.

Third—The apprenticeship period from the age of sixteen until the age of twenty-one or even till that of twenty-five.

Fourth—The home-making period, when the home is made and a family raised. This period is well on towards completion at the age of forty-five or thereabouts.

Fifth—The period from forty-five to the end of life, which may be long or short, happy or otherwise, depending upon the manner in which the first four periods have been spent.

The first two periods of the average life are spent under the influence of the home and the school. During the third period the home continues to exercise a necessary influence; and during the fourth period, the home serves as the anchor of the whole life as well as the haven for the new generation that is beginning to make its appearance and to prepare for its journey through life. The home and the school are therefore the foundations upon which any community rests. There is another class of institution without which, neither the home nor the school can function or even exist, namely the farm, the shop and the office; that offers opportunities for employment. The church, which teaches the purpose and way of life is the fourth fundamental requirement and no community should allow a condition to develop that is likely to undermine any one of these four institutions—the home, the school, the church and a job for every boy and girl as soon as they leave school, and while they are travelling through their apprenticeship and home-making periods.—The Instructor.

REASON FOR TALL

COWBOY HATS

The High River Times is wrestling with a query propounded by a distinguished visitor to that old ranching district as to why cowboys wear high-crowned hats.

The Times has made sundry and diverse enquiries among present-day cowboys. But they do not seem to have any true appreciation as to the reason the tall two-gallon hats were introduced.

The primary reason was to keep the hat in place when a Maelocid zephyr was blowing. The harder it blew the snugger the hat was pulled down.

Then the shape of the lofty crowns also created less air resistance as the cowboy galloped over the prairie. It was a case of primitive streamlining. The cowboy merely lowered his head until the hat was parallel to the ground. This prevented any impediment to the speed of the horse.

So the latest models in auto streamlining are really throwbacks to the cowboy days in the west, and the tall-crowned hats.

The advice is to ship only to reliable firms.

THE MODERN CAR

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1936

Why do we say The New Ford V-8 for 1936?

What is new about it?

Of course, the newest engine in the low-price car field is still the V-8 engine. Since Ford made it available to all car users (keeping it as economical as cars with fewer cylinders) the Ford V-8 has been the newest engine on the market, and remains the newest for 1936.

You may buy a car on minor "talking points"—some specially advertised feature "with the car thrown in"—but, after all, it is the engine you buy when you buy a car. Hence we put the engine first.

Other new points about the car make a long list.

Its lines are much more beautiful. The hood is longer and sweeps forward over the distinctive new radiator grille, giving the car a length and grace that are instantly impressive. The fenders are larger, with a wide flare. Horns are concealed behind circular grilles beneath the headlamps. New steel wheels.

•Ford upholstery—always of sterling quality and excellent taste—is rich and enduring. The appointments of the car have a new touch of refinement. There is no question about the increased beauty of the Ford V-8 for 1936.

In more practical matters, many improvements have been made—Steering is made easier by a new steering gear ratio. The cooling system circulates 4½ gallons of water through a new, larger radiator. Natural thermostat action is assisted by two centrifugal water pumps. New style hood louvers permit a rapid air-flow around the engine.

Easier, quieter shifting of Ford gears—The gear shift lever now travels a shorter distance.

The two qualities you want in brakes—Brakes that stop the car with ease and certainty. Ford Super-Safety Brakes of the long-tested, fool-proof, mechanical design.

Safety—as always—in the electrically welded genuine steel body. Safety Glass all around at no extra cost. Hundreds have written grateful letters because this glass has protected the safety of their families.

A car you can drive without strain all day, if you like, in city or country. Steady, holds the road, responds to the driver's touch like a well-trained horse. You don't have to "push" or "fight" the Ford V-8—driver and car easily get on terms of good understanding with each other.

An engine has much to do with the roominess of a car. Very much indeed. A long engine uses up car space. The compact V-8 engine permits much of the ordinary engine space to be used by passengers.

It really is a great car in every way, this 1936 Ford V-8—the finest, safest, most dependable Ford car ever built. Get complete details at your nearest Ford dealer.

Recreation A Vital Necessity

Ever since some authority discovered and told the world that every man should have a hobby, the dictum has been reiterated at intervals by later authorities with varying degrees of emphasis and sometimes by those who are interested in promoting some form of amusement or recreation.

Whether uttered, however, with or without an ulterior motive the assertion is one which has a sound foundation in psychology and human experience. It is first cousin and as well founded as that more popularly known saying: "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

While a hobby or recreation is a valuable adjunct to work for men at all periods of his march from the cradle to the grave, in at least two stages of his progress, in youth and in old age, it is an absolute essential if he is to achieve the goal of life—happiness.

The word recreation itself gives a clue to the reason. Re-creation, the making over again of the individual as he seeks relaxation from the "trivial round and common task" means what it indicates.

Unless a man is content to be a dull clod, he must refresh and re-create himself by seeking relaxation in some pursuit which, for the time, will lift him above the cares and worries incidental to earning his daily bread and providing for the needs of those dependent upon him. He needs some outlet, which will induce rest into aching limbs or brush away the cobwebs from the brain.

In youth this diverse interest may take the form of athletics, mechanical activity and with a minority, some more sedentary type of relaxation, but no matter what form it may take, it is essential to the development of a sound, robust citizenship, that youth should be allowed time for recreation.

The lad or young man without a hobby is apt to become morbid and unhealthily introspective. Youth is normally a period of superabundant energy and this overflowing vivacity should be allowed to express itself in forms of healthy recreation, and if it can be used as a step ladder to a life vocation, it is the much more to the good.

Many a youth has "found" himself in the pursuit of a hobby. History is full of stories of boys and young men who have made good in later life because they have been allowed to follow their bent and of many more who have done so despite overwhelming obstacles and discouragements. By all means encourage the young man to take up some interest, apart from his daily work and chores.

And if a hobby is essential to youth it is vital to old age. There is no more pitiful sight than the old man whose physical powers have waned and who has no interest in life or in living. Such a man is a burden to himself and an incubus to his associates. He is misery personified and makes miserable those with whom he comes in daily contact.

But the old man who has built up an interest secondary to the life work which he pursued in his prime is spared the pains and penalties of advancing years. As he becomes physically enfeebled he is able to turn his hand and his mind to a pursuit which daily grows in fascination, because it can be taken for granted, that the hobby which he has developed is something which he likes and in which, therefore, he can excel. Such a pursuit will go far towards prolonging life itself and will certainly give zest to the declining years. Gloom will give way to sunshine and contentment will displace moroseness.

But it is too late for the aged to develop a hobby after they have reached the sere and yellow. The old adage, "You can't teach an old dog new tricks" is applicable to humanity. There may be exceptions but that is the rule. That is one of the reasons why, even during the crowding years of prime and middle life, a recreation is not only advisable but essential. It is an insurance policy for a contented and interesting old age.

Moreover the man who diversifies his interests beyond his life's vocation, even during the period when life is at the full, is more likely to have an old age in which to further develop his hobby. It need not necessarily be something apart from his daily work. It may well be something related to it, in which event its pursuit will yield additional interest and perhaps more tangible dividends in the task of making a living.

The Bible of the present generation is the outcome of centuries of research and patient effort. It contains 66 books in one, covering history, psalms, prophecy, romance, law, liturgy, biography, and letters delivered as correspondence. It is read in palaces and in mud huts. Each year the Bible societies of the world send out 25,000,000 copies in hundreds of languages. ## Mounted Section Necessary

Separate Division of R.C.M.P. Is Being Considered

The old order changed.

The Mounted Police are considering forming a mounted section in the force, according to the annual report released at Regina headquarters.

"If present plans are advanced to completion," the report states, "the subjects of equitation, mounted drill and stable management will be undertaken by those assigned to the mounted section only."

The report states difficulty is experienced in completing the training of some recruits within the prescribed period of six months when intensive training in equitation is included in the syllabus.

Some recruits may be assigned to mounted duty only, while others will take instruction in more modern and rapid means of travel.

Despite reports that the force was slowly but surely doing away with horses, Major-General Sir James H. MacBrien, commissioner, states in the report that "there is no intention whatever of dispensing altogether with the mounted man. A well-trained mounted unit of sufficient number is invaluable to any force which may have to deal with unruly crowds."

At the present time, the report states, the force throughout the Dominion has 258 saddle horses and 19 team horses, and of these, 58 saddle horses and 13 team horses are located in Saskatchewan.

Other means of land transport owned by the Mounted Police are 411 passenger cars; 34 motorcycles; 19 motor trucks; three railway gas cars and 413 eldigh dogs.

Of that number, there are 96 motor cars, four motor trucks and 28 dogs stationed in Saskatchewan.

The force also operates 11 cruisers and eight patrol boats in preventive services on the eastern and western coasts.

Everyone knows that a smart appearance counts for a lot in getting a job, they pleaded, but who can look really smart with one's hair cut like a convict's?

NO VOLUNTARY WHEAT POOLS TO BE OPERATED

Winnipeg.—With the long-sought Dominion wheat board in actual operation, no voluntary wheat pools will be operated by the Manitoba Pool Elevators, Limited, this year, it was disclosed in the report of directors accepted at the annual meeting of the pool delegates.

Similar action on dropping voluntary pools in favor of marketing by the Dominion wheat board will be taken by the Saskatchewan and Alberta wheat pools when their annual meetings are held shortly, said L. C. Brouillette, chairman of the central selling agency.

Increased handlings of wheat, increased membership and reduction of indebtedness of the pool to the Manitoba government were disclosed in reports to the 150 delegates from all parts of Manitoba. Payments to the government totalled $177,722.42 and met the due instalment in full. An operating surplus of $308,524.15 was reported.

Termination of the voluntary pools because of establishment of the Dominion wheat board was in line with the policy of the pool organizations, it was announced. The pool elevators will handle the grain and the marketing will be done by the Dominion wheat board.

The change was anticipated in agitation for the Dominion wheat board and the Manitoba pool delegates passed a resolution asking that the board extend its operations "to handle coarse grains and to set a minimum price which approximates the cost of production." Such action can be taken by the board if approved by the governor-general-in-council.

Pool members will continue to have the alternative of delivering their wheat to pool elevators and either accepting the street price when delivery is made or selling through the board. The board set a minimum price of 87½ cents a bushel No. 1 Northern. For wheat basis, and further payments will be made to growers if earnings of the board warrant them.

With due instalments paid to the Dominion government, the termination of the pool to the government as a result of re-financing four years ago, now stands at $1,639,363.87. Payments made this year were $284,60.16 on interest and $95,262.26 on principal. "The liability of the pool to the government to the province will be liquidated in full," said the directors' report.

Increase in membership of 864 brought the total membership to 10,142, the report said. Wheat, and increased from 10,034,329 in the crop year 1933-34 to 10,068,887 in the crop year 1934-35. After taking care of all expenses, a net operating surplus of $308,524.15 was shown from which the payments to the Manitoba government were deducted, along with other payments to working capital, etc.

Ottawa.—The Canadian Radio Commission announced it would broadcast through co-operation of the British Broadcasting Corporation the ceremony November 6 of the wedding of Duke of Gloucester and Lady Alice Montagu-Douglas-Scott.

May Try State Medicine

Envisaged For Manitoba By Minister Of Health

Winnipeg.—State medicine throughout Manitoba, if an experiment about to be made in a small area proves successful, was envisaged here by Hon. I. B. Griffiths, provincial minister of health and public welfare.

Preparations now were being made by the government to establish a unit area in which a form of state medicine will be tried out, he said. The ultimate scheme would involve free medical, hospital and drug service to individuals, the cost to be borne "probably by provincial and municipal governments out of taxes." In the unit area contemplated, said Mr. Griffiths, there would be no change in the present system except that doctors, druggists and hospitals would not send bills to patients. Payment would be taken care of from a common fund provided by the municipal and provincial governments.

Explore Polar Sea

Wilkins And Ellsworth Expedition Leave For Antarctic

Montevideo, Uruguay.—The Norwegian whaling ship Wyatt Earp buzzed with activity as Lincoln Ellsworth and Sir Hubert Wilkins completed preparations to sail at once for their Antarctic expedition.

Accompanied by two Canadian aviators—Herbert Hollick-Kenyon, of Winnipeg, and J. H. Lynehamer, of Montreal—Ellsworth hopes to span Antarctica by air before Jan. 1, the long-winged monoplane "Polar Star" which has undergone intensive tests here. It will be Ellsworth's third attempt to conquer the icy continent by air.

The objective of the flight across 2,800 miles of ice-bound mountain crags and snowy wastes will be to determine if possible whether Antarctica is one immense continent or two, divided by a channel from the Weddell sea to the Ross sea.

Enforcement Of Act Delayed

Premier Aberhart Gives Out Statement Regarding Health Insurance

Edmonton.—State health insurance will not be brought into effect for some time, it was announced by Premier Aberhart. The act, passed at the last session of the legislature, will stand over until payments of basic dividends begin.

"One reason for not taking action now is that Social Credit means health benefits for the people," the premier said.

One objection was that under state health insurance there would be direct levies on people living in a unit organized under the plan. As a result it is felt, he said, that the matter should stand over until Social Credit is brought into operation, when there would be automatic health benefits for the people.

Big U.S. Deficit

Washington.—Uncle Sam dipped his pen in red ink, and reported his deficit had passed the billion-dollar mark for the present fiscal year. The United States treasury in a statement put the deficit at $1,007,457,156 through Oct. 14. This compared with a deficit of $687,211,671 on the comparable date of last year.

Powerful Radio Stations

U.S. Talk Of Installing Super-Powered Stations Near Border

Washington.—A study aimed at re-aligning the United States radio system to provide from 20 to 40 super-powered stations and probably 150 new low-powered ones has been undertaken by engineers of the federal communications commission.

Plans under consideration are said to call for the establishment of high-powered stations on the Canadian and Mexican borders. These stations, however, would operate with directional antennae, throwing most of their power inland and away from the border stations of Canada and Mexico.

Ottawa.—Before any general plan was considered finally by the United States which would involve the setting up in that country of super-powered radio stations, each of 500,000 watts power, Canada and Mexico would be invited to confer with Washington on the proposals as it would involve probable interference with broadcasting operations here and in Mexico. No invitation to such a conference has been received here.

Brazil Reduces Army

Finance Commission Anxious To Save On 1936 Budget

Rio De Janeiro.—Although virtually every important world power is increasing its armaments, the finance commission on the chamber of deputies approved a slash in Brazil's standing army. The proposal would remove 3,000 men from the army, leaving it at 656,162, in an effort to save about $300,000 in the 1936 budget.

CONFERENCE IN NOVEMBER IS CALLED BY KING

Ottawa.—It was learned here that Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, in acknowledging congratulations received from Liberal provincial premiers, had expressed the hope they would seek so to arrange their engagements as to make possible their presence at a Dominion-provincial conference in Ottawa on a date to be arranged in November.

He also sent a telegram to Premier Aberhart of Alberta advising him of the communication he had sent to the other premiers and asking if Mr. Aberhart also could so arrange his engagements as to enable him to be present at the conference. (All the other provinces have Liberal premiers.)

As soon as the new Liberal government assumed office, Mr. King said, it was his intention to discuss immediately with his colleagues the holding of a Dominion-provincial conference. The premiers would be advised of the decision.

Although Mr. King gave no indication as to the subjects proposed to be discussed by the conference, the impression here is that legislative enactments of last session will be studied in relation to their constitutional validity. Suggestions to amend the British North America Act may also be under review.

VISITS CANADA

Lord Rothermere, British newspaper magnate, who has arrived in Canada to spend a short vacation. He will spend the majority of his visit in Toronto.

Study Air Currents

Balloons Sall Into Stratosphere To Collect Valuable Information

Calgary.—Every night at 6 during last week a balloon was released at Calgary airport to sail into the stratosphere and collect valuable information concerning air currents and temperature.

The experiment, carried out by C. H. Bromley of the Calgary meteorological bureau, are in conjunction with Dominion-wide work under the supervision of John Patterson, chief of the Dominion, meteorological bureau at Toronto.

Three balloons were released in Calgary last March when the experiments began and another trio were sent out on fact-finding missions in June. Four were found, one going as far east as the Alberta-Saskatchewan boundary.

When the balloon bursts in the stratosphere, the double kite carries the instruments safely to the ground. The aluminum case is fixed between the kites and never touches the ground. Directions are attached to the kites asking that they be forwarded to the meteorological office at Toronto where a reward will be paid for their return.

Series Of Earthquakes

Starts New River Running Near Afghanistan Border

Moscow.—A new series of earthquake shocks in the district of Tadzhikistan, near the Afghanistan border, destroyed several villages and started a new river running from the mountains, said despatches.

In all, there have been three series of 'quakes in the region, beginning October 8. The total dead was placed at 107 after the first two series and apparently the death toll was not great in the third disaster.

Uniform Text Books

Winnipeg.—Possibility of a joint education board being set up for the prairie provinces, with the objective of having uniform text books in the west, will be explored by the Manitoba department of education. Departments of education in the other provinces will be asked for their views.

Canadian Legion Anniversary

Celebration In November By Branches Throughout Dominion

Ottawa.—Arrangements are well advanced among branches throughout Canada for the celebration next month of the decennial anniversary of the founding of the Canadian Legion, J. R. Bowler, general secretary, announced.

In connection with the birthday celebrations General Alex Ross, Dominion president of the Legion, will undertake a tour of the country. He will be present at the Alberta provincial convention at Medicine Hat this month and will be in Winnipeg for the Armistice Day ceremonies, Nov. 11. Following that the general will tour Ontario, winding up in Ottawa on Nov. 25, when a public function celebrating the anniversary will be held.

Legion officials are hopeful the governor-general designate, Lord Tweedsmuir, may be able to attend.

Canada Stands Committed

Ready To Carry Out Sanctions Imposed By League

Toronto.—Hon. Newton Rowell, Canada's delegate to the first assembly of the League of Nations, said the "Canadian Club" here, Canada stands committed to carry out all sanctions which the league might impose against Italy under articles of the league covenant. Canada must sever all commercial and financial relations with Italy, he said. Economic sanctions be imposed on that country.

Great Britain hesitated, Mr. Rowell said, when Ethiopia's application for membership in the league was raised, and it was "only because of the advocacy of France and Italy" that Ethiopia was admitted to the league. There were no less than five treaties or agreements binding them to settle any disagreement by peaceful means.

Weather Held Up Ballot Box

Voters In Northern Mining Camp Deprived Of Poll

Ottawa.—Elections at the mining camp of Chibougamau in the new constituency of Chapleau Que. deprived of a poll on election day because unfavorable weather prevented the ballot box from being flown in, will not be afforded an opportunity of exercising their franchise later, the chief electoral officer stated here.

Similar situations have arisen in previous elections where unforeseen difficulties prevented a ballot box reaching a poll in an isolated district; and the principle was followed that ballots could not be cast after election day. A total of 129 voters are located at the northern mining camp.

GENEVA PUTS MORE WEIGHT BEHIND LEAGUE

Geneva.—Geneva has put more weight behind the League of Nations against Italy. Its "general staff" of 52 nations adopted a resolution urging member states quickly to fulfill their "duty to take the necessary steps to enable them to carry out" their sanctions obligations.

Earlier, the heaviest artillery for economic sanctions—a "buy nothing from Italy" plan—was moved into committee discussion by Anthony Eden, British minister for league affairs. Eden observed with satisfaction that no open opposition was expressed to his proposal to prohibit importation of "all goods manufactured in Italy," although the economic sanctions committee has not as yet definitely adopted it.

Once economic sanctions—a key product embargo and the "buy nothing from Italy" boycott—have been finally approved, the first phase of the league's sanctions drive will be ended.

From then on League of Nations sanctions against Italy will be confined to watching over the enforcement of measures adopted.

Paris.—After the League of Nations has acted upon Great Britain's proposal that a "buy nothing from Italy" campaign be adopted as a sanction, France and Britain officials disclosed, plan to ask the United States whether it would support a world-wide embargo against Italian exports if the league should adopt such a sanction.

The two powers will seek to learn if the United States would restrict its Italian imports to aid the league. Attitudes of other non-league member powers, including Germany, Japan and Brazil, will be sought likewise, it was understood.

WAR MATERIALS RUSHED FORWARD TO AID ETHIOPIA

Zella, British Somaliland.—Ethiopian commanders and their staffs are working at high tension day and night to complete plans to oppose invasion on a battleground of their own choosing, according to reports reaching here.

Cheered by Somali tribesmen, trucks carrying new rifles and cartridges for the Ethiopian army are passing daily through British Somaliland, en route to Jijiga and Harar. More than 100,000 tons of munitions, shipped across the Red sea from Aden and landed by British vessels at Berbera, have been delivered safely across the frontier since Britain lifted the arms embargo against Ethiopia.

Had dry weather enabled Italian tanks to make a dash through the desert, this route from the coast would have been cut off and the emperor's costly purchases would have been useless. But continued rains have delayed the tanks and held up the Italian troops.

Rides have been redistributed by the mule load to troops scattered in the highlands, where scenes of the wildest rejoicing followed their receipt. Hardly his fighters who never saw a modern weapon before, acknowledge the precious gifts with kisses and go off waving them in the air.

Plan Welcome For Lord Tweedsmuir

Official Ceremony At Quebec On November 2

Ottawa.—The official ceremony of welcome to Canada will be extended to Lord Tweedsmuir at Quebec on Nov. 2 on his arrival on the Duchess of Richmond, it was announced. The ceremony at the ancient capital will include the swearing in of the new governor-general.

Suggestion was made the new Liberal cabinet of Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, victorious at the polls, may be sworn in before the admiral, Sir Lyman P. Duff, in the interim. While no official intimation was available, this was thought as a likelihood.

The usual course will be followed with the prime minister of the day with his ministers journeying to Quebec to welcome the new incumbent of Rideau Hall. Mr. King, with his colleagues, welcomed Lord Willingdon when he arrived at Quebec in 1926. Mr. Bennett and his ministers went to Halifax to greet Lord Bessborough on his arrival in 1931.

Social Credit Text Book

Premier Aberhart Would Enlighten The Young People

Edmonton.—Preparation of a Social Credit textbook to be placed in classrooms of Alberta schools, even if only as a supplementary reader, to enlighten the young people regarding "this great movement," was urged by Premier Aberhart in an address to Edmonton teachers here.

The prime minister and his cabinet, the new premier, formerly a Calgary high school teacher, from the Alberta Teachers Association, tendered through 250 Edmonton members.

Importance of the teacher's place in "this new spirit" was stressed by Mr. Aberhart. He urged them to break from the confines of classrooms if they hoped to gain the recognition that is theirs in dealing with the country's greatest asset—its young people.

Build Up Navy

Earl Of Jellicoe Urges Start On More Capital Ships

London.—The Earl of Jellicoe, commander of the grand fleet during the first part of the Great War, urged an immediate start on the construction of capital ships for the navy.

Speaking at the Navy League's Trafalgar day dinner, he said: "Under present conditions the British empire does not possess the sea power vital for its existence. The obvious necessity is to start to build up our navy immediately to adequate strength."

Run Is Modified

Toronto.—Horn tooting between 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. must cease in Toronto "except when required to do so by law," it has been ruled by city council. The clause making exception for law requirements was inserted as an amendment before the bill was passed by the civic legislature.

In a swift Royalist coup d'état, Greece rejected her 11-year-old republic and restored the monarchy. It is understood that King George II. will wait till he hears the result of the nationwide plebiscite which takes place on November 3rd before he returns to Athens. Above, left, is General George Kondylis, Royalist leader, who seized the reins of government in a swift and bloodless stroke.
